THE ACADEMY HERALD

DEDICATION

The class of 1969 appreciatively, sincerely and affectionately dedicates this yearbook to Charles Newell, who has made the sports field, the Boys' Dorm, the Bio Lab and the Gould Campus more lovable, laughable and livable.

never reach the hilltops."

Ron Collins

"Good results always follow honest, earnest, persistent effort."

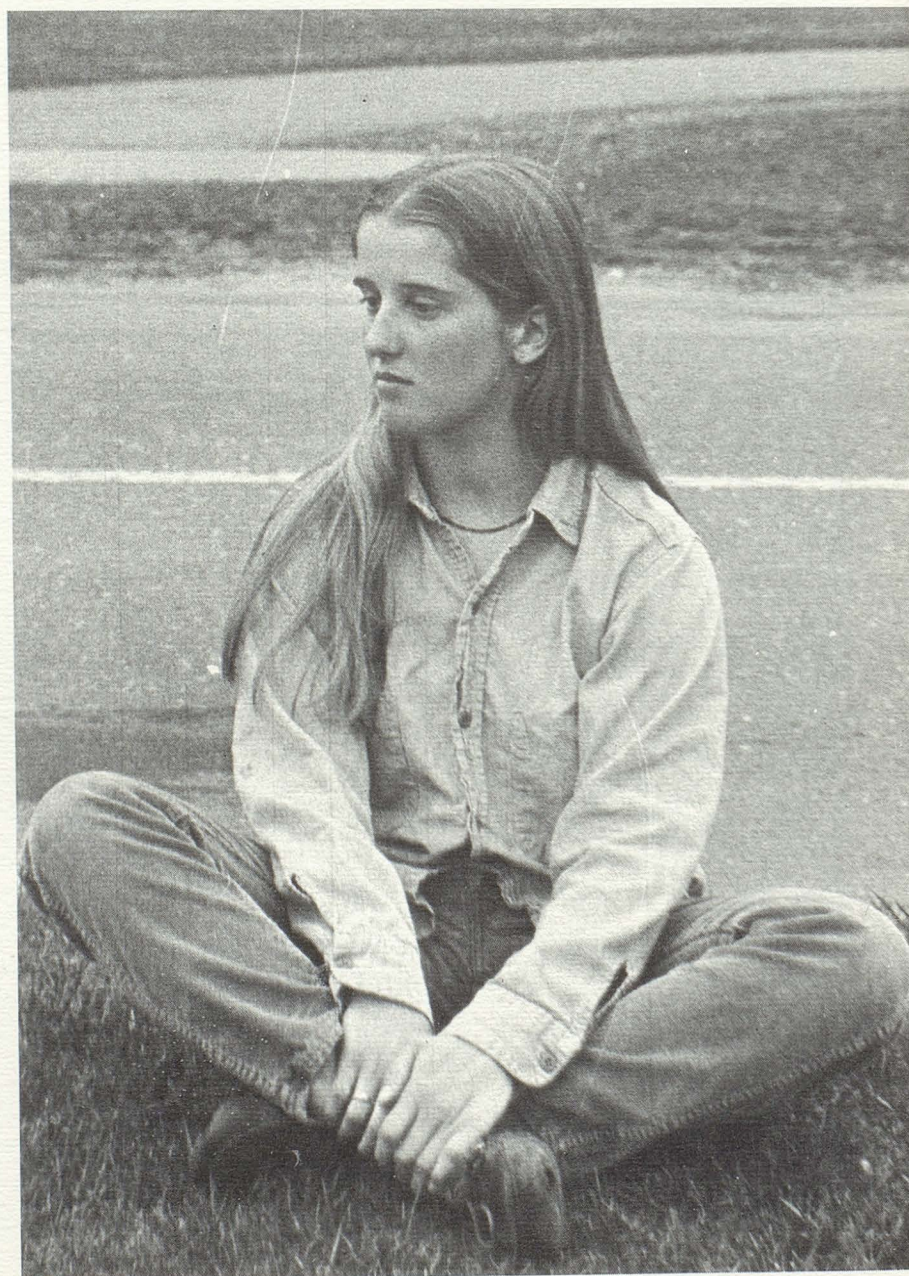

Sally Yeo

"An individual is never without the means of being so."

Ed Handy

"May Mohammed and all his boys guide you in your most troubled moments. Keep the faith, Baby!"

Sadie Piazza

"The sea, the sea, the open sea
The blue, the wide, the ever free."

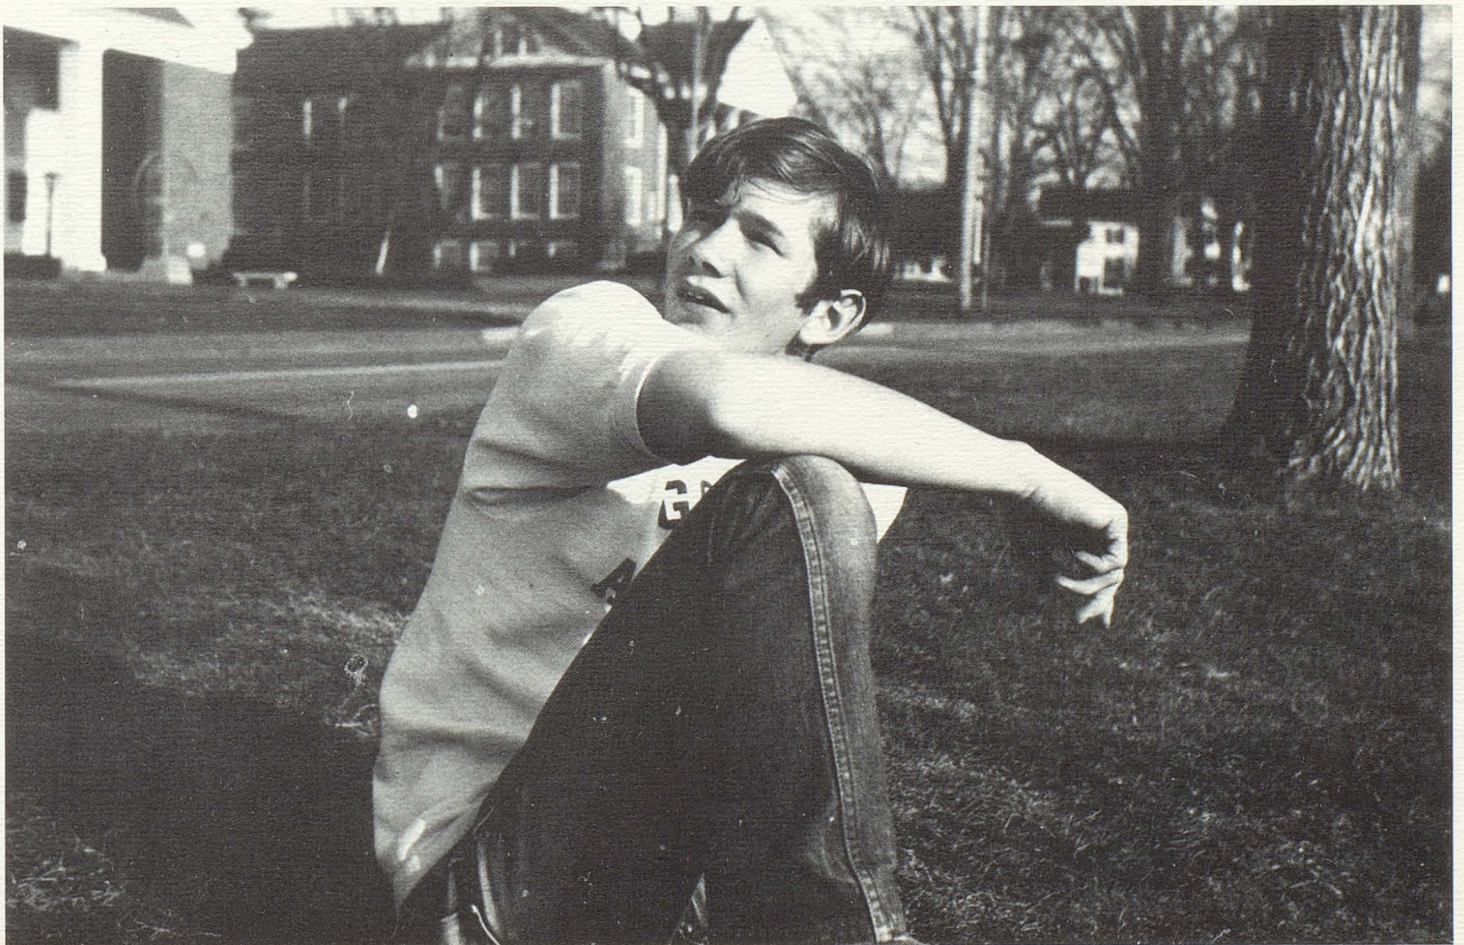

Martha Wentworth

"Nothing brings such quick results as kindness, gentleness, cheerfulness and lending a helping hand."

Bill Moore

"The rumor of my death has been greatly exaggerated."

Scott Daigle

"Let it be understood that I am Don Juan
Gomez,
My saddle cloth is fringed with scalps of Indians

I have slain,
And when I see a girl and knock upon her
shutter,
Though it be dawn or dark I need not knock again."

Nancy Reid

"Be but yourself and let the world think what it will."

Mike Curtis

"In the daytime I'm too sleepy to worry. In the nighttime I'm too busy."

Peter Cole

"One thorn of experience is worth a whole wilderness of warning."

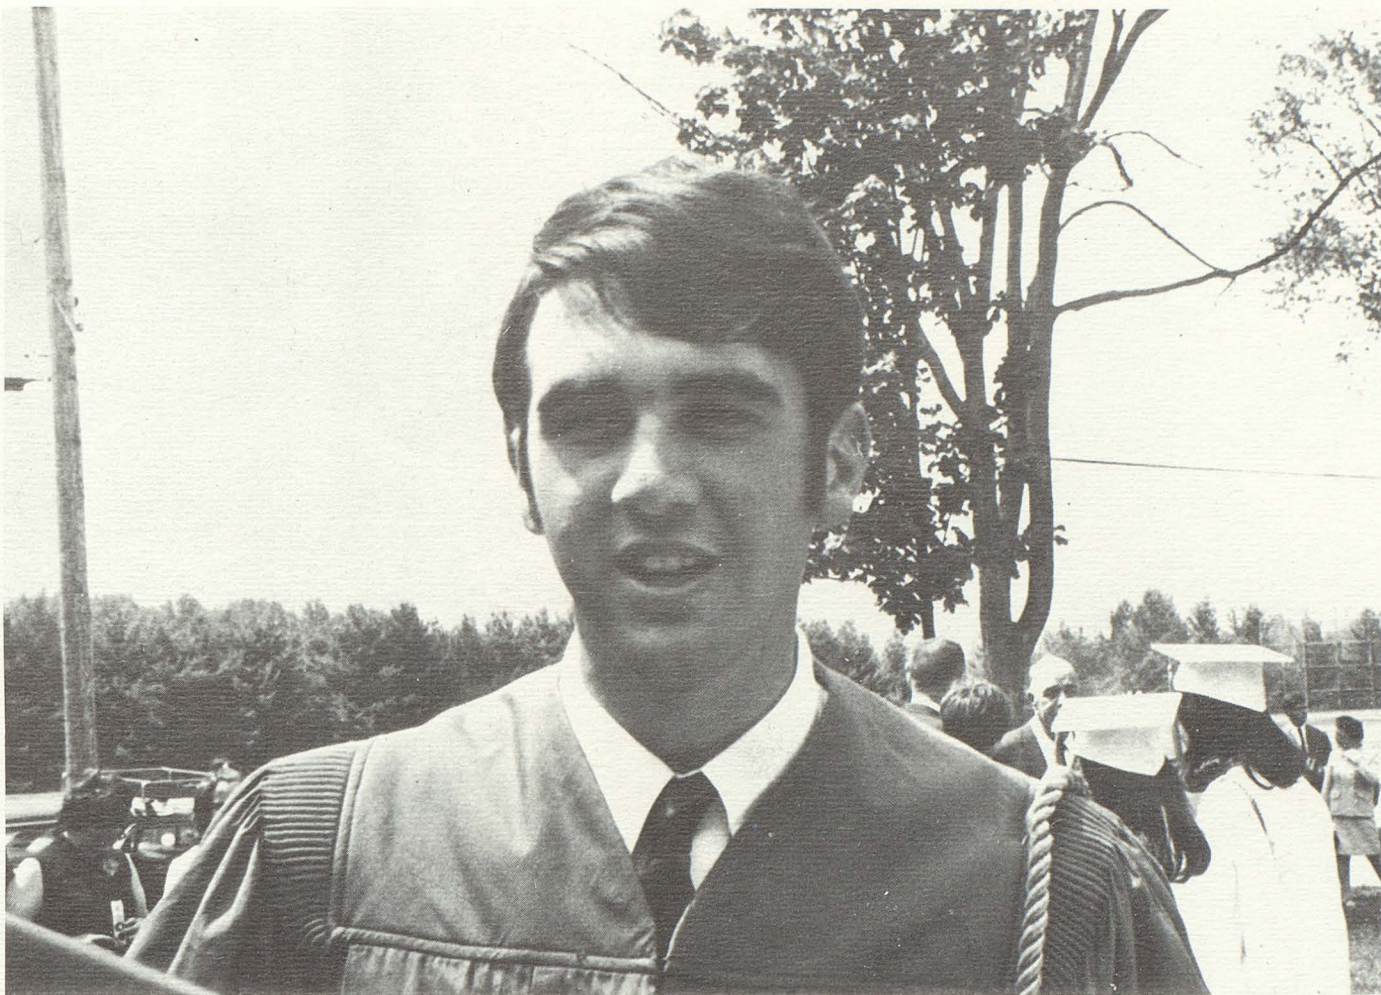

Fred Reinhart

"I am tired of four walls and a ceiling; I have need of the grass."

John Wentworth
"Big surprises come in little bags."

Craig Boyd
 "Winning isn't everything, but wanting to is."

Gary Caruso
 "Everybody talks about the weather, but nobody does anything about it."

Scott Cumming

"I am a man more sinned against than sinning."

M. J. Geronda

"Even in a world of grief and pain,
Flowers bloom, even then."

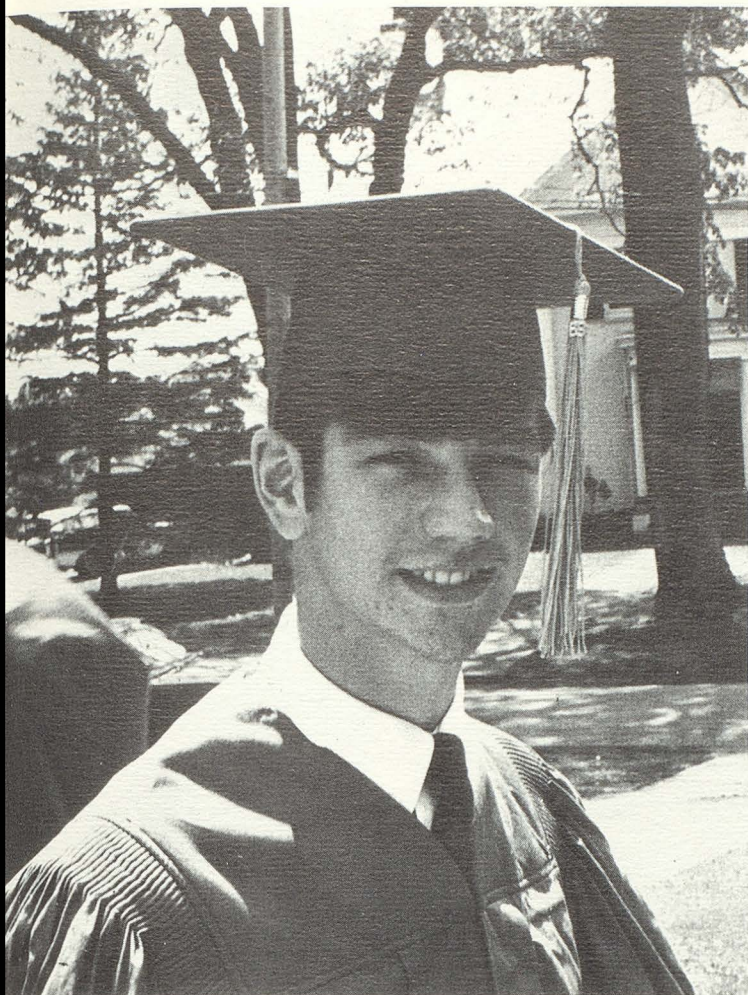

Liz McLellan

"Keep your face to the sunshine and you cannot see the shadow."

Paul Treworgy

"Who broke no promise, served no private end,
Who gained no title and who lost no friend."

Judy Bancroft

"Today is the tomorrow you worried about yesterday and that dreadful thing didn't happen, did it?"

Melinda Held

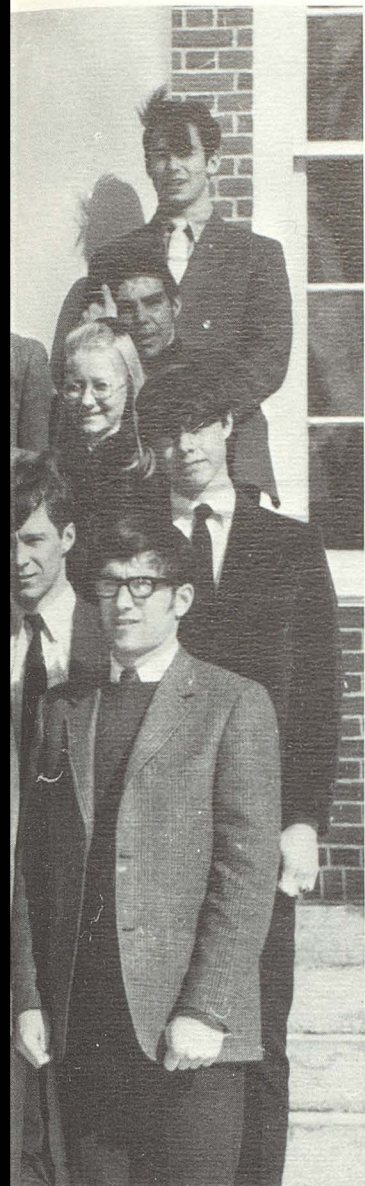

"To know her is to love her."

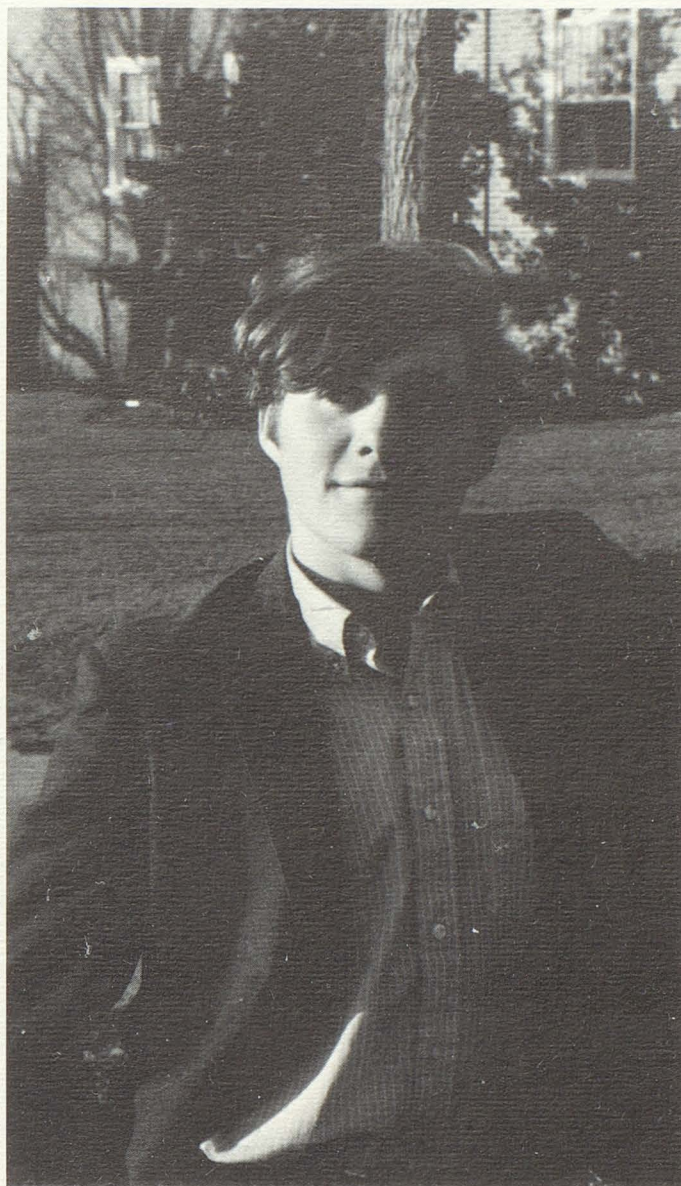

Gwen Reiman

" 'Tis a friendly heart that has plenty of friends."

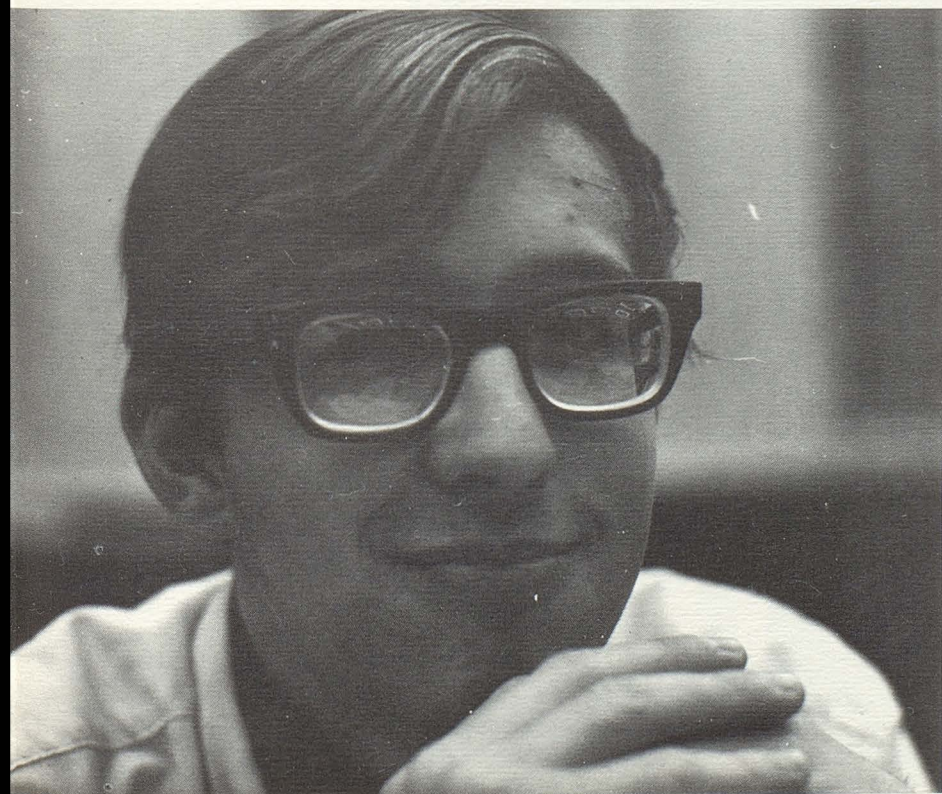

Alan Mersfelder

"Silence is the element in which great things fashion themselves."

Mark Bechtel

"Smile, it makes people wonder what you've been up to."

Pete Martin

"Without music and song my world would not be."

Sue Pollack

"Life is just one damn thing after another."

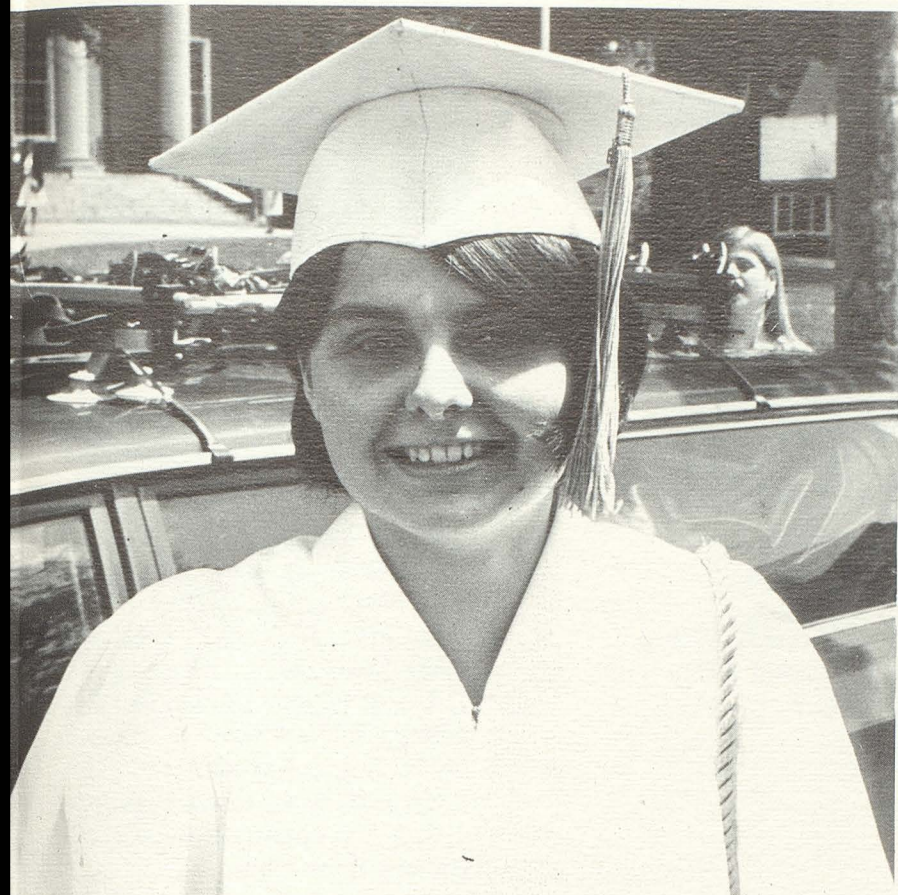

Terry Lunt

"Faster than the speed of light . . . Superman never had white sneakers!"

Mark Riley

"He seems so near, and yet so far."

Nancy Brown

"Will and intellect are one and the same thing."

Cathy Buck

"For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are my ways your ways."

John Thurston

"Wit makes its own welcome and levels all distinctions."

FRESHMAN CLASS

It's one of those moonlit weekend nights on the Gould Campus. Despite the fact that it's past 11 we see Vicci and Gary running up the bank with daisies in their hands. After stumbling over Mike and Frannie in right field, the four of them complete the dash to their respective dorms. On the front steps we pass Lizzie coping with Meyer. Sue Vance, Nancy Creteau and Janie are conversing with Pinette and Schmohl from the windows of third floor. Inside, in the butt room Tricia is trying to wake up while puffing on a Marlboro. Buffy and Hildy are discussing plans for the late evening. Martha is trying to comfort Gwenie about her latest change of heart. Judy Waite is sharing her plans for becoming a shepherdess with Marcie. Kathy Buck is occupying one full couch, still asleep? Sally and Judy Bancroft are watching whatever is on TV at 11 in Maine. Twig and M.J. are brewing up a feast for some Holden gentlemen. Smitty and Miss are on their third match of ping pong and Miss hasn't won a match yet. Suspicious noises from the area of the ice cream room reveal the whereabouts of Sue Pollack and Nancy Reid.

On second floor Stephie and Wendy are coping with the Red Sox' services. Sue Hatch isn't in Sears' room, but upon search we find her at the back door awaiting Judy's return from a Rumford trip. Chris Foley is keeping her company while they discuss Chris' marks. Sadie is out of sight as usual, but her collection of music is giving the floor atmosphere.

On Third Hall Judy Jenness is sewing in Candy's room while Candy is worrying about her bills. Aim is still out somewhere with her townie. Francie, now asleep, has been conferring at the NTL house. Small Riley is asleep? while her records still revolve and Josie prepares for bed. Debbie is already asleep since she's been. all petered out. Bunker is being entertained by Johnny Carson in the privacy of her own room. Mrs. Parks hasn't been heard from yet this evening. (It's the rumor that she's still out parking.) Miss Swift is trying to convince us all that it's half an hour after lights out. Bonsoir!

BOYS' DORM

As we enter the Boy's Dorm, in the "butt room" we find Rusty Phipps, Kent Shepard, Bill Heckenkamp, Mark Harding and Jim Ogg talking over the exciting events of the day or telling old stories. Continuing along the first floor we find Geoff Ruben finally doing his algebra and missing his roommate Bill Patrick (Twiggy) who is still visiting the hospital. Still further the emptiness denotes that Gary Caruso, Fred Reinhart, Peter Cole, and Mike Curtis have gone over the bank (and out of sight) to pick daisies. In the next room the silence is disturbed by a Rick Mercer super modified frog call which brings some laughter from his neighbors Bob Cope and Gordon Cavanaugh. The F.B.I. has finally caught up with Andy Dill leaving us without a secret agent. Jeff Winter and Bill Runyon are visiting at the Student Union.

Bob Reinhart and Obie Atkinson are uptown shopping for toothpaste. (Hope they find it.) Bob Schmohl, Dave Jervis, and Doug Bailey are talking about the Red Sox' prospects. Ed Handy, Bill Peters, and Scott Daigle are packing for their annual camp out on Paradise Hill.

Up on second floor we find Terry Lunt in Mr. LaDieu's room watching the tube. High notes of unusual origin pierce our ears as we pass by Bob Gilpatric and Ted St. Pierre's room. Peter Martin, Kris Larson, Al Mersfelder, and Ray Richards are flooding the hallways and avoiding the flying mustard of Rick MacAdam and Jeff Reel. Bart Bailey and John Lowell are on a Gehring Hall bed check. John Erhard and Kip Taylor are enjoying a game of pool while Ed Bailey watches closely. Scott Treworgy and his roommate, Mark Martin, are presently hiding in their closets because of their fear of Freshman Brook. Proctor Ron Collins (Gazebo) has just broken up another Room 22 fight between Scott Cumming (alias Brunno) and Mark Bechtel. Ray Harrington has taken Paul Treworgy to Rumford and Mark Riley is seeing Venezuelan sights.

Stuart Gaw and Paul Pinette are checking the NTL House facilities. John Wentworth, Bill Moore, and Lars Nelson are planning a summer of surfing.

(Sorry, Mike McCreary was late as usual.)

TOWNIES

If one stopped to consider the townies at Gould, he would realize the eliteness of this fine group. From this group we have the senior class valedictorian, Nancy Brown, the school's favorite "chipper," Craig Davis, and one of the few sophomores ever to receive a Gould blazer, Danny Vogt. The townies also can boast that they have one fifth of all the Freshmen — Cathy Vogt and Donna Grover. We have Gould's faithful "Doc," Ray Harrington and the only Norwegian Gould student to be accepted at Colby, Pipp Wiese. Two other townies who are big men on campus are this year's basketball team captain — Craig Boyd, and next year's captain, Wayne Davis. One of Maine's best alpine skiers, Peter Kailey, and the world's greatest connoisseur of bags, Susie Pierce, are also members of the Gould townie group. John Thurston is the well-respected owner of the townie-mobile, the only one in existence, upon which this remarkable group is perched. We love us.

FOOTBALL

The Gould 1968 football season opened on September 20 with a two and one half hour practice. Coaches Hurd, Cousins, LaDieu, and Roderick had only a few short weeks to get the team ready for their first game. Long practices ensued and by the time that October 9 arrived, the team was fully prepared for the upcoming games.

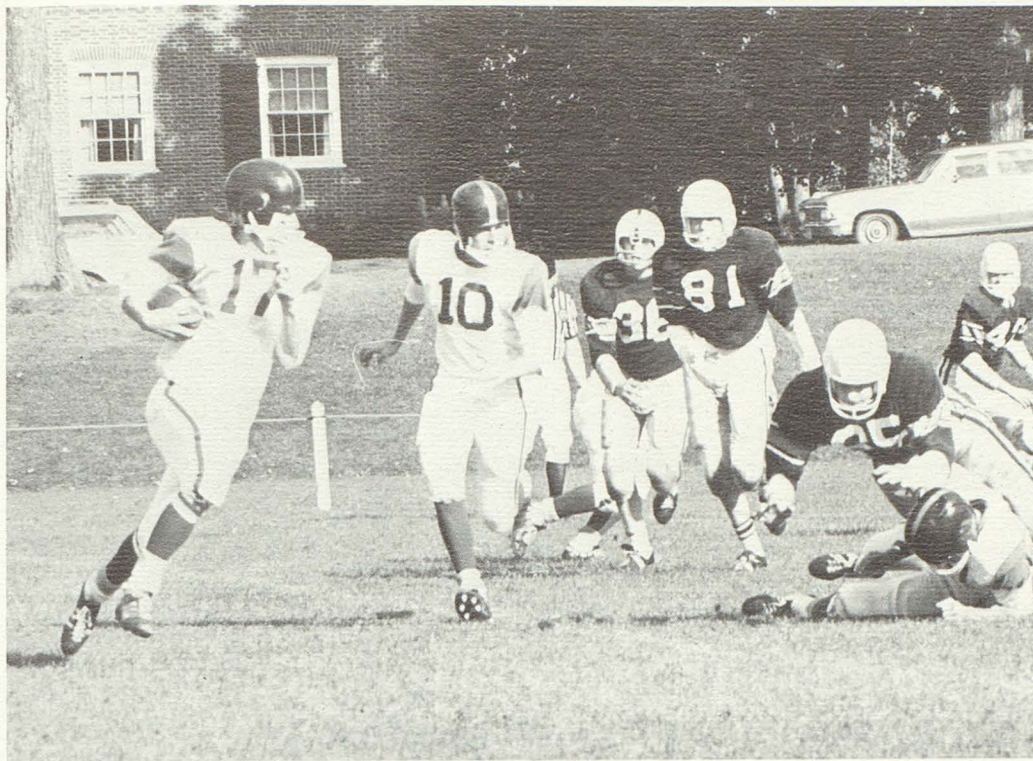

Their first game was with the B squad of the Kents Hill school team. Kents Hill was a small and unorganized team and gave way easily to Gould's powerful plays. The Huskies overwhelmed Kents Hill with a strong running attack which scored six touchdowns and secured four extra points. The defense was also very good. They stopped the Kents Hill team every time and were still holding them back when the game ended in a 52-0 victory.

The next time that Gould was scheduled to play was on Saturday, October 19. In the morning the Huskies climbed into the Gould bus for the long trip to M.C.I. (Maine Central Institute) in Pittsfield. The team played well, but were outgunned by the big, powerful M.C.I. eleven, who won 32-12.

The last game was played on Parents' Day, October 26. This game with Hyde was more evenly matched than the other two. The game was close and undecided up to the last play. Hyde edged out Gould with a 20-13 victory which ended the 1968 season.

A summary of the 1968 football scores is as follows:

Gould	52	Kents Hill	0
Gould	12	M.C.I.	32
Gould	13	Hyde	20

BASEBALL

First of all, Mr. Bowhay and Mr. Newell should be thanked for their patience. With only ten men out for baseball, the team was both shallow and inexperienced. Our inexperience showed through in the first game against Notre Dame accounting for our first loss. After that however, we started playing better baseball. Our lack of depth was fully illustrated by the fact that our manager Al Mersfelder earned a letter as both manager and a player.

For an inexperienced team we did all right statistically. The team batting average was .239 with Stu Gaw leading the team with a .392 batting average. Craig Boyd led the team in home runs. Dave Jervis led the pitching staff with a 2-3 record.

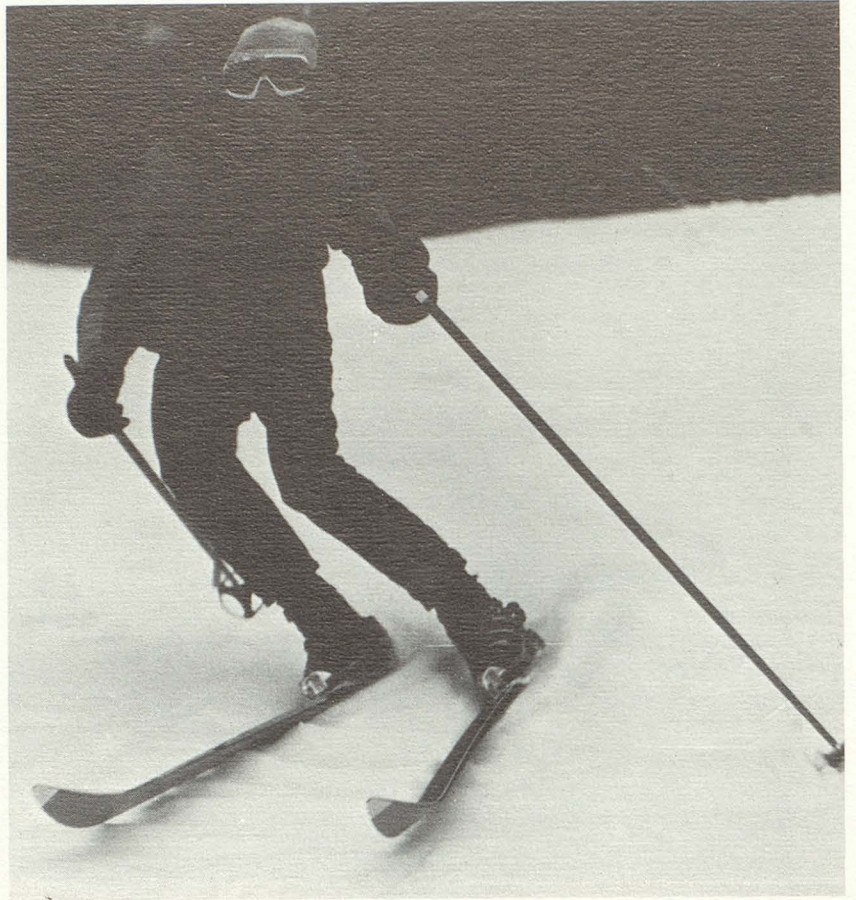

We wish next year's team and Mr. Newell the best of luck.

The cross-country team, coached by Mr. Frank Vogt, participated in eight meets this season including the Maine Prep School League Meet which was held at Hebron.

Craig Boyd, a senior, was the captain of this year's team.

The team, which consisted of eleven members, eight of whom received letters, was victorious in three meets this fall. With the majority of the team returning underclassmen, we look forward to even greater things in the coming season.

TRACK TEAM

The track team had a rather poor season, but not because they didn't work or have good men. Inexperience and injury took their toll from the ranks. Bart Bailey was high scorer for the team with a collective 50 pts. Mr. Vogt, aided by Joe and Mr. LaDieu, gave valuable coaching.

GOLF TEAM

Despite the fact that the members of the golf team are grand people, the team wasn't much of a winner. Mr. Crosbie provided coaching and rapid transport and the whole group had a good time in the sand traps and the woods! Pete Kailey saved some morale by winning a game and the others contented themselves with the fact that they were good sports. There's another year too and who knows what may happen.

GIRLS' SKI TEAM

Amid many bellyaches and occasional shin splints, good ol' coach got us in shape, this fall. Our workout consisted of hopping up and down, jumping up and down, and bugging the boys' basketball team.

We had a lot of fun going to the meets. Coming back we had many a hairy ride, but we always managed to stop at Goodwin's.

We even got around to beating Bridgton and Livermore Falls. However our best meet was against Farmington. Jose really showed us she could ski. She and Aim placed in the top three with Judy, Gwennie, and Liz not far behind.

The whole team showed great improvement during the season. Ellie became quite the slalom racer, and Sadie with her Rossie's was getting pretty good.
